

1. Inference, Predicting and Curious Questions

What do you think this book will be about?

Where do you think this book will be set?

Who will be the main characters?

This is one of the pictures from the book. What words do you think you will read in this story? _____

Using your knowledge of fairy tales? What added words do you think you will find? _____

2.A Fairy Story

The village was nestled in the middle of Africa, where the skies were crystal blue overhead and the eye could see shades of green into the horizon. Flowers bloomed in bright colours sprinkled throughout the emerald leaves of trees. A rushing river could be heard from the wooden huts that made up their home and there was a well worn dirt path that ran from there to the river. Majestic mountains could be seen in the distance covered with more vegetation. It was a wonderful place of peace and beauty.

What creatures, land features and atmosphere might you see in this story's setting?

Draw the setting

4. Character Study -

Pick one of the main Manyara or Nyasha and then fill out the character traits with examples from the text.

The character says:

She is _____,

and _____

Picture

The character thinks:

I think:

The character does:

Name:

The author says:

5. Inverted Commas

Write what is in the bubble into proper sentences using inverted commas. Remember that what is in the speech bubble, is what is inside the inverted commas.

1. Someday I will be Queen and you will be a servant!

1. Manyara said, "Someday I will be Queen and you will be a servant!"

2. I will be happy to serve you.

2. _____

3. I am certain father loves you best.

3. _____

4. You are clever, strong and beautiful.

4. _____

5. Everyone says you are so kind.

5. _____

6. Cause and Effect.

Cause - is what triggers something to happen.

Effect - is what happens as a result.

Ex: Cause: I learn my spellings. Effect: I get my words right on the test.

Cause

Nyasha sang while she tended her garden.

Nyasha saw a little snake in the garden.

The king asked for the most worthy and beautiful women to come to the city.

Manyara wanted to be first to visit the king.

Nyasha was kind to the little boy and the old woman.

Effect

7. Sequence - Put events in order from 1 - 8.

An old woman gave Manyara some advice about the trees.

Nyasha agrees to marry the king.

Nyasha gave the small boy a yam and thanked the old woman.

Nyasha and the wedding party began along the path through the forest without Manyara.

A messenger came and invited the most worthy and beautiful daughters to the city.

Manyara would not give the small boy any of her food.

Nyasha would sing to the snake, Nyoka, when she was tending her garden.

Manyara was crying and begged Nyasha not to go to the king.

What do you think is the most important event and tell why you think this.
Draw a picture to match this important event!

