

Ravana, the bloodcurdling beast was feared throughout the land. His ten horrendous heads gaze at his enemies as if ready to attack. Before he takes his victim, he will slowly creep up behind them and boldly bellow, "Say your gracious goodbyes!" The nightmarish creature's sharp, treacherous teeth sends shivers down the spines of those who meet him. His lengthy arms wrap and trap any being who crosses him.

Character phrase	Alliteration	Appearance	Actions	Adverbs
---------------------	--------------	------------	---------	---------