

King David

One morning King David woke up very early. Everything was bright and beautiful. Even though he could not see it, he knew the sun had risen in the sky. David was a good King. He often thought about people who lived in his land.

He thought about them looking up at the sky, seeing the same sun, feeling the same light and warmth as himself. "How wonderful God is!" he thought. He knew the golden sun spread the message of God's love for neighbours all over the world.

He wanted his people to know this too.

King David's Psalm

The sky above tells how wonderful God is.
Every day it is there for us to see.

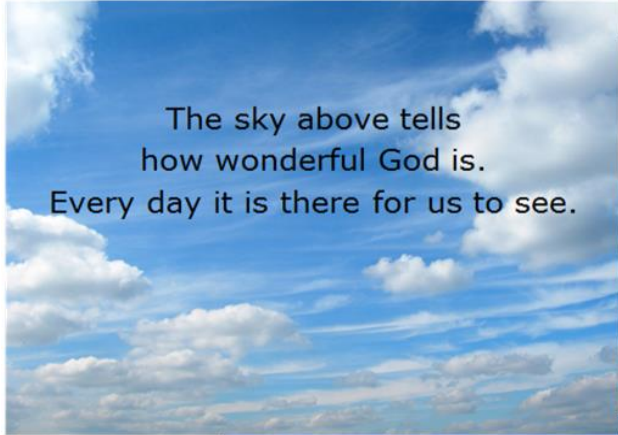

Every morning the golden sun
appears in the sky,
shining on everyone,
bringing light and warmth to all.

Spreading the message
of God's love
to neighbours here,
neighbours there,
neighbours everywhere.

Based on Psalm 18: 1-5

The sky above tells
how wonderful God is.
Every day it is there for us to see.

Every morning the golden sun
appears in the sky,
shining on everyone,
bringing light and warmth to all.

Spreading the message
of God's love
to neighbours here,
neighbours there,
neighbours everywhere.
