

Monday-Wednesday's RE Resources

For Monday/Tuesday

Sometimes we can misuse the freedom we have and use it irresponsibly. We forget to love God and our neighbour. It may not be by something that we do, but by something that we omit to do.

Amos was a prophet who lived long before Jesus and challenged the people to care for the poor and those in need. Prophets reminded them of God's love and of the kind of people they were called to be.

Amos 8: 14 - 15

Always aim to do what is good and avoid what is evil, so that you will live as God's people; and when you say that your God is with you, it really will be true. Hate what is wrong; love what is right. Make sure that justice is done for everyone, so that your God will show mercy to you.

For Wednesday

Edmund Burke 1729 - 1797

'All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.'

At times when we do not follow these instructions, we need reconciliation and forgiveness from God. We know that God is loving and merciful and that He will always forgive us.

In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we celebrate God's love and mercy. We learn about the joys and challenges of living as a follower of Jesus in love and peace.

During the celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation the Church celebrates the love and mercy of God and calls people to confess their sins, ask for forgiveness and be reconciled to God and one another.

Act of Contrition

O my God, because you are so good,
I am very sorry that I have sinned
against you
And with the help of your grace I will not sin again.
Amen
