

A Helping Hand - a review for Freedom and Responsibility

Rules

Rules tell people how to behave.

The Ten Commandments

Freedom = Responsibility

Moses

The Greatest Commandment

Behaviour/Beliefs

The Beatitudes

Isaiah

Conflict

Believers/Non Believers

Reconciliation

Can you place these statements and add pictures or chat about each heading with your family?

~~Rules tell people how to behave.~~

Worship no God but me;
Do not use my name for evil purposes;
Observe the Sabbath and keep it holy;
Respect your father and your mother;
Do not kill;
Do not be unfaithful;
Do not steal;
Do not lie;
Do not be greedy;
and Do not take what is not yours.

Rules help people get along.

Be peacemakers;
Be kind and forgiving;
Be thoughtful;
Be loyal to God;
Do the right thing;
Follow God's ways;
Be fair and just; and feel.

The Commandments were given by God to Moses.

Freedom and responsibility are linked. With no thought to others, we may be free but if all people act like this, the world might not be as kind a place.

Moses asked for God's help.

They are important to Christians too.

They helped the Jewish people get along.

A reminder from Jesus in how to live a positive life and be rewarded by God for

How to please God.

To mend relationships.
To say sorry.

Some are the same as our British laws.

Rules tell people how to behave.

People have different beliefs. Not understanding this can cause problems.

To love one God and one another.

Not killing anyone does not mean you are a Christian.

Good people.

Anger and hate.

Washing our hearts.

I believe in God, so I follow the Ten Commandments.